PRINCIPAL'S COMMUNIQUE

CREATIVITY IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE, AND PRIMARY EDUCATION IS WHERE TEACHERS CAN BRING CREATIVITY IN CHILDREN AT THAT LEVEL

Instead of conforming teachers acquired knowledge and abilities to the classroom helping them to apply those knowledge and skills to real situations in the real world so teaching the students 21st century skills because it isn't just trendy to do so - they are skills students need to be successful in the world. 21st century skills refer to the knowledge, life skills, career skills, habits and traits that are critically important to student's success in today's world, particularly as students move on to college, the work force and adult life. The term teaching skills means skills that enable a teacher to increase student learning, achievement and the ability to apply knowledge. It also includes the way of effectively conveying and explaining academic subject matter and effectively teaches higher order analysis, evaluation, problem-solving, communication etc. The 21st century skills help students build character and cultivate compassion and empathy, which are crucial as social collaborative beings.
